1. Current student loan debt and loan servicer(s): Available through the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS), loan servicers provide repayment options that may work well for you when it is time to repay your student loans. You will need your FSA ID to log into NSLDS.

Visit the NSLDS Financial Aid Review website and enter your FSA ID when prompted.

Your personalized, detailed loan history will appear. If you have not received financial aid in the past, you will see an error page. Print the error page and attach to this form.

2018-2019 LOAN ADJUSTMENT REQUEST

Please Note: We recommend that you track your financial aid via NSLDS on a regular basis. NSLDS provides the status of your loan(s), your loan servicer(s), and the percentage of Federal Pell Grant funds you may have used. NSLDS may not include recently borrowed loans and your overall student loan debt may be higher than the amount listed on NSLDS at this time.

Print your summary page from NSLDS and attach to this form.

NSLDS shows that, before requesting these additional loan funds, my overall student loan debt was already $ _____.

Check this box if NSLDS does not have a financial aid history for you and attach the error page from the NSLDS Student Access website.

2. Repayment options: visit the Federal Student Aid website.

- Click Log In and enter your FSA ID when prompted.
- Click "Go to the Repayment Estimator" in the bottom right hand corner of the page. Your personalized repayment options will appear based on your current debt.
- Add the loans you have already borrowed this aid year plus the additional amount you are requesting.

Print your personalized Repayment Estimator page and attach to this form.

Under Standard Repayment, my monthly student loan payment will be $ _____
