FALL2015-006

---

Bill Summary

As part of Phi Theta Kappa's (PTK) Fall 2015 on-campus service initiative, Stephen Wren, Vice President of PTK Fundraising and Scholarships, would like to partner with SGA and CCD's Center for Math & Sciences to create an Expanded Tutoring Program focused on improving the success rate of students enrolled in MAT 121. PTK has identified 1-on-1 tutoring as a specific area that has the potential to drastically improve the retention and completion rate of MAT 121 students at CCD.

The Extended Tutoring Program will consist of seventy-seven (77) hours of free 1-on-1 tutoring, and will be available to all students currently enrolled in any of the thirty two (32) sections of MAT 121 at CCD. Each 1-on-1 tutoring session will last thirty (30) minutes, and will be schedule directly with the Confluence Tutoring Center. All MAT 121 professors will be allotted with two (2) tutoring hours (four sessions), per class, to be distributed at the professor's discretion to students who will benefit from individualized tutoring support. Professors have the ability to award multiple tutoring sessions to the same student. However, a student will not be scheduled or issued additional tutoring sessions beyond the first until the student has successfully completed his/her existing sessions. If a student fails to attend more than one (1) scheduled session without reasonable notice, the student will not be eligible for additional sessions. All extended tutoring sessions will be tracks by the Tutoring Center. PTK will monitor the Extended Tutoring Program and provide reports to SGA upon request.

Cost breakdown for Fall 2015:

- Seventy-seven (77) 1-on1 tutoring hours
- Tutoring Center cost = $13.00/hour
- Total cost to SGA = $1,001.00
